

Stacy's Corner

Happy Fourth of July! As we celebrate with cook outs, fireworks and red/white and blue with our friends and families. I think of July as usually a hot month when we are trying to beat the heat. But I love to drive down the street and see all the red/white and blue decorations. It brings a smile to my face, thinking about hometown gatherings. I am sure you can remember some memories just like that. Let us enjoy the times we have with each other, show love and kindness to our fellow neighbors, you never know what someone else is going through. A couple of things I want to remind you of:

Quiet Hours: 10:00 pm to 7:00 am. This means no noise in the communal areas, outside the building or any loud noises coming from your apartment. Also, please be respectful of playing loud music in the hallways, communal areas and outside the building even during the day as it can disturb others and some residents do sleep during the day.

Please do not put furniture in the communal areas on your floor. If you need to get rid of something you can contact an organization for a pickup. But we do not want excess furniture in these areas. More updates to come in the coming weeks or months.

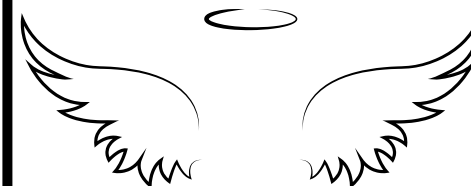

July's Inspirational Vitamin

"July is hot afternoons and sultry nights and mornings when its joy just to be alive. July is a picnic and a red canoe and a sunburned neck and a softball game and ice tinkling in a tall glass. July is a blind date with summer."
— Hal Borland, Sundial of the Seasons
